

Violin Lessons – Part of the Music and Performing Arts Program at St Simon Peter Catholic Primary School

Julia Watson

Julia began her violin studies at age 4, and has gone on to forge a freelance career, performing with various groups in the Perth music scene, as well as interstate and internationally. Julia regularly plays with the Fremantle Chamber Orchestra, the Perth Symphony Orchestra, Indian Ocean Ensemble and with WAAPA ensembles where she currently studies Masters under the tutelage of renowned international soloist Alexandre Da Costa. She has held concertmaster position with several orchestras including the Faith Court Orchestra and Fremantle Chamber Orchestra, who welcome international soloists including Alexandre Da Costa, Shaun Lee Chen and Rudolf Koleman.

Julia has enjoyed sharing her love of the violin and music with young students for over 15 years. She offers both a strong focus on developing technique, along with creating a fun and enjoyable learning environment for young musicians to grow. Julia has taught at Iona Primary, John IIXXX College and privately. With a broad experience in world music and improvised music, there is always a new musical world to discover. Julia has some openings for enrolments and would love to welcome your child to the violin program at St Simon Peter Catholic Primary School. For further information please contact Julia directly at watsoj05@gmail.com or via the booking form provided on the school website by following the link: <https://goo.gl/ldKvr5>